FOREST KING WON, BUT WAS RULED OUT

Fouling Cost the Leader the First Prize in the Big Oakland Race, on a Muddy Track.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.-Forest King, the heavily played favorite, won fourth race at Oakland today, but was disqualified for fouling and placed second, Lady Crawford being given first money. Forest King was regarded as a good thing for the event, which was at a rile and seventy yards. It appeared as if he could win handily, but he swerved into the rail, bumping Lady Crawford. Bonner pulled his mount out and he again collided with the Schreiber horse. Forest King was a neck in front at the finish, but Mountain's claim of foul was promptly allowed. In placing Forest King second the judges took advantage of the rule which permits them in their discretion to do so when no other horses are interfered with and they are beaten off.

The track was very muddy and heavy showers fell during the afternoon. David S., quoted at 10 to 1, won the fifth race by a nose from Tellowstone, a 25 to 1 shot. #### VICTORY FOR EGAN OVER FITZGERALD

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28 .- By the score of six games to one, Michael J. Egan from Jersey City defeated James Fitzgerald of San Francisco in the first of the series for the handball cham-pionship of the world. The games were played on the court of the Olympic club, probably one of the fastest courts in the country, and the many experts who watched the contest agreed that never before had such handball been seen in this city, if anywhere. The series to decide the championship will consist in all of fifteen games, or rather of the best eight in fifteen, and the match will be concluded at the Olympic club's courts next Sunday.

Fitzgerald has to win seven out of the eight remaining games to carry off the championship. The score was as

BAUER TOUCHED HEARTS OF LOCAL MUSIC LOVERS

If ever a musician upon his first appearance in a city played his way into the hearts of an audience, that musician was Harold Bauer, who simply charmed gramme closed. While every number was Harold Bauer, who simply charmed the great audience gathered to hear him last night at the First Congregational church. His fame as a planist had long sgo reached the ears of music-lovers here, but few in the audience had sat beneath the spell of his music until last night. First of all the hearer was agreeably surprised in the man. Young, modest and of a manly appearance, he is absolutely devoid of the mannerisms which frequently detract from some of the world's great musicians. As quietly and with no more apparent effort than one would play the simplest ballad, he rendered the entire programme, and it; but fair to say that such playing is selded means from any platform. One of Mr. Bauer's chief charms as a player is his power to bring out the singing quality of each mote, his ability in this line heing of the highest type. Again, he has a peculiarly caressing touch and the manner in which he brought out the exquisite harmonies showed the master hand. The programme was a superb one,

... AMUSEMENTS...

ISS SHAY is a grand operasinger of some class below the first. No one can reasonably expect from her and her company a performance of high rank. Grand opera companies giving such a performance do not come this way. So those who care for grand opera must take the Shay kind or go without. We presume she finds enough who like her kind to make touring in the far West pay, or she would not be out here again. We hone she does make it pay. We should hate to hear of an industrious and enterprising young woman losing money. Miss Shay's voice is not equal to the part of Carmen. It has its good tone, but it is unreliable, and one cannot help wishing that when she was abroad she old not remain longer and train it more. But as she apparently did not want to do that, would it not have been better if she had chosen to go into musical comedy. In which so much is not asked of the voice? She has impulsiveness enough, we think after seeing her as Carmen, for the role of a comedienne. She is a rather saucy one. She is self-possessed. She has an aptitude for acting. She has a tendency to peculiarities of movement which she now restrains more than she did a year ago, but to which in comedy she might give free play. She has great confidence in herself. Why wouldn't she win in a musical merry-go-round?

The leading sopriano of the company is Many Carrington, who takes the part of Michaela. Miss Carrington was here with the Grau company. She has a true, clear, sweet voice. Her solo in the third act aroused warm appliance. James Stevens was the Toreador. His voice is not entireity suited to the famous song of the evening, has an exceptionally distinct enunciation and the bearing of a good sector. Mabel Campbell and Mabel Kiar were excellent in the minor parts of Mercedes and Frasquita. The tenor was not satisfactory. The chorus was worthy of prisise, doing its work well. The company was attractively dressed. The musical director is Carlo Nicosia, who came to America with the unhappy Mascagni. The attendance was light, the other musical affair attracting many. Clever Chicago Boxer Stops a Runaway and Saves a Woman and Child-Queenan Arrives.

"Battling" Nelson, the Chicago boxes who meets "Spider" Welch of 'Frisco in this city on the 5th, was a conspicuous figure in an exciting runaway on West South Temple street yesterday morning. By stopping a runaway horse attached t buggy containing a woman and child, Selson not only made a "rep" us a foot acer, but won the lasting gratitude of the mother and hearty applause from several spectators.

Nelson was jogging along a sidewalk on the west side of town, doing his regu-lar morning road work. While thus engaged, with his mind busy figuring out some new wallops, the Windy City boxer was startled by the sound of a horse coming down the street at a mad gallon. The animal was going in the same direc-tion as Nelson was traveling, and before he became fully aware of what was go-ing on, the swaying vehicle, with its frightened occupants, was almost upon him.

frightened occupants, was almost upon him.

With the quick thought that characterizes a good boxer, Nelson cut across to head off the fleeing animal. He was almost too late, but by a quick run reached the animal's head and seized him by the bit.

Nelson was lifted from the ground by the impetus of the runaway, but gamely hung on and stopped the horse within a short distance. The bearer turned the animal over to some bystanders and continued his roadwork without waiting to learn the name of the woman he had saved from injury or possible death.

Davis Lura Lighter a close third. The time was 1:49 flat.

Lura Lighter a close third. The time was 1:49 flat.

The field was a large one and there was a long delay, but finally when Starter Murray dropped his flag the horses jumped forward to a good start. The light weighted Bankin immediately raced to the front and set a hot pace to the first turn, closely followed by Marthimss and Duelist. Rankin showed the way up the back stretch, but when the further turn was reached the leader began to falter. Duelist here assumed command, and racing neck and neck with Marthimas, turned into the stretch two lengths before Little Scout.

Well straightened out for the wire, Little Scout set sail for the leaders, and passing the clubhouse it could be seen that the Bennett horse had the ruce in hand. Dominick rode in masterly fashion, and at the finish dashed under the wire three lengths before McGee, Lura Lighter coming fast from behind, secured the third money.

The race had a lotal value of $51.55, and was worth $1435 to the winner.
